

A few points and questions to consider:

Look back through Romans 8:1-30. Note below the promises that Paul shared in these verses that are especially dear to you.

Then consider the questions Paul poses in Romans 8:31, especially in light of the events of the past three months. Select one (or more) of the promises in Romans 8:1-30 that is (are) most applicable to the time in which we are living.

Write a prayer of praise to God for the victory He has promised you from this passage that is carrying you at this very moment.

Once again, we encourage you to dig a little deeper into this passage by preparing a HEAR Report. As noted in previous weeks, HEAR is an acronym for Highlight, Explain, Apply, Respond.

- Read thru this passage and HIGHLIGHT a verse(s) that you found especially powerful.
- EXPLAIN the verse. What was the context and purpose for what was written and when it was written.
- APPLY the verse to yourself
- Lastly, RESPOND to the verse. Maybe there are changes God wants you to make in your life w.r.t. the verse. Or your response may be a prayer to God. It may be praising Him. However you feel led to respond.

As has been pointed out by others, the goal isn't for you / me to jot down a "profound truth" but to note the "truth you found."

Please email us and let us know how this passage spoke to you. Also let us know if you have any general comments, suggestions, etc. for this midweek Bible study program. We want and need to hear from you. Email address: connect@madisonavenuebc.org

Possible questions to consider: How can this help me? What does this mean to me? What would the application of this verse look like in my life? What does this mean to me? How does this apply to my family, my church family, my community? What is God saying to me?
