

Children and Students Connect Groups

Each of our Children's and Student's Connect Groups are intended to partner with parents and families as they make disciples. We invite each young person to Connect to God through faith and Connect to One Another in friendship. We do this through the creative and regular teaching of the Bible taught by caring volunteers in a safe and loving environment. All Connect Group leaders have submitted to a background check and receive appropriate training.

Group

Infants to One-Year-Olds	E-215
Two to Three-Year-Olds	E-217
Four-Year-Olds to Kindergarten	E-213
1st – 3rd Grade	E-322
4th – 6th Grade	E-315
7th – 12th Grade	Student Center
*Special Friends	E-311

A separate setting group specially designed for those in our church and community with developmental delays or and/or special needs. It is taught by a highly trained and loving teacher with many years of experience.*

Adults Connect Groups

*All of our Adult Connect Groups are open to people of any age or stage of life but we have tried to give a bit of information about the class as a help to those seeking for a group to attend. The descriptions are general and not intended to be in stone.
In other words, "Go where you will grow!"*

Growing in Christ	Greg McClain	E-304
This group of mostly married couples is Connecting to God and one another through discussion-oriented Bible Study, genuine friendship and ministering to people in our community.
Living Waters	Kenny Wiggins	AB-204
This is a group of predominantly couples (but some singles) in their 40s & 50s (but some younger and older) living life and serving God together. Bible study is typically expositional (verse-by-verse) from a single book.

New Life	Tony Long/Mike Lambert	A-101
This group of mostly nearly and newly-retired people studies the Bible, prays for one another, and cares for the needs of group members as well as those in our community.

Abide	Greg Heisler / Tom McCoig	E-108
This group of mostly middle-aged adults loves to study the Bible together, most of the time verse by verse and line by line. They faithfully pray for one another and seek out those without a group to belong to.

Seekers	Women's Group	E-206
This group of mostly retired women has a long-standing commitment to seeking the Lord through Bible study, prayer, meeting one another's needs and welcoming new members.

Singles and More	Nancy Pollard	E-111
This group of mostly single adults with a heart for God and people seek to know God through His word, and love God through loving one another and following after Jesus.

Challengers	Al Grubb	A-103
This group of mostly senior adults is Connecting to God and one another through discussion-oriented Bible Study, genuine friendship and ministering to people in our community.

Faithful Gleaners	Susie Dunn	S-116
This group of mostly senior adult women gathers each week to study God's Word, care for and pray for one another and spur one another on to continue to follow Jesus.

Good News	Couples Group	E-203
This group of mostly retired couples seeks to be devoted followers of Jesus and a light to our community. They gather to read and understand the Bible, pray for another and reach out to those in our community who have needs.

Agape	Don Morton	E-205
This group of senior adults has been faithfully following Jesus for years now and meets weekly to continue to do so through Bible Study, prayer, and friendship.

Men's Fellowship	Jamie Harbin	E-204
This group of faithful senior men love to Connect to God through studying the Bible together and connecting to one another through prayer and friendship.		